

New York (City). Macbeth gallery

Box

Chestnut Tree

Temperas and Water Colors

By

ANDREW WYETH

NOVEMBER 1—20, 1943

MACBETH GALLERY

11 East 57th Street

New York 22, N. Y.

E
N48
M12w97

1917-

THIS group of water colors and tempera paintings by Andrew Wyeth were done during the past twelve months. The motives are all derived from the hills and valleys immediately surrounding his birthplace in Charles Ford, Pennsylvania.

The varied and nostalgic moods which prevail throughout the entire group are fraught and laden with the memories of an imaginative and sensitive boyhood.

Water Colors

1. THE HOME OF JOHN CHADS
2. EDGE OF THE MEADOW
3. FROM AN ATTIC WINDOW
4. PUMPKIN VINE
5. BACK ROAD
6. CORN CUTTER

Dry Brush Water Colors

7. STONE HOUSE
8. SPRING BEAUTY
9. JACK-IN-THE-PULPIT
10. FEBRUARY 2nd

Egg Temperas

11. THE HUNTER
12. CHESTNUT TREE
13. BLACKBERRY PICKER
14. PUBLIC SALE

