OUR SUMMER EXHIBITION

Three types of picture buyers are provided for in the collection presented for our Summer season.

The collector of paintings will find in our inner gallery carefully chosen canvases by some of America's greatest artists, living and dead,—examples which will adequately represent their creators in the best of company.

The lover of beautiful paintings, who purchases an occasional picture for its own sake, and who wishes to limit his expenditure to about five hundred dollars, will find in our first room a selection that is comprehensive in appeal and uniformly fine in quality.

Finally, those seeking small pictures of merit for informal rooms, will find in our gallery of water colors and etchings a varied and beautiful collection at a wide range of prices. Etchings for as little as ten dollars and water colors at seventy-five dollars will be found to hold their own in the company of others in these mediums priced to three hundred dollars.

The out-of-town friends to whom this catalogue is mailed are cordially invited to call upon us for any service that we may be able to render when they come to New York this Summer. Our gallery will be open daily except Saturday during July and August, from 9 A.M. until 5 P.M. and on Saturdays by appointment.
