FOREWORD

Mr. Lavallo is one of the Boston group of painters. He studied at the Boston Museum School of Fine Arts under Leslie P. Thompson and Philip L. Hale, and later at the Academie Julien in Paris. He is a member of the Guild of Boston Artists, the Boston Society of Water Color Painters, and Secretary of the Copley Society of Boston. His work has been exhibited in every large exhibition in this country as well as the Paris Salon.

This present group of water colors is of a series which he made during a recent visit to Europe. He had studios in London, Paris and Cannes where he was engaged in several portrait commissions, and in Paris he conducted a small atelier preparing students for entrance to the Ecole des Beaux-Arts.
