

EXHIBITION OF Fourteen Landscapes
by
Charles H. Davis, N. A.

From March Third to Sixteenth 1910

The Macbeth Gallery
450 Fifth Avenue
New York

You are cordially invited to a special exhibition of the work of Charles H. Davis, N. A., which will be on view in this gallery until March sixteenth.

It is a real pleasure to make another showing of Mr. Davis' pictures, for they have a sincerity and poetic quality that make a strong appeal to picture lovers. His latest exhibition, just a year ago, was, like its predecessors, most favorably received by the critics and general public alike, and the canvases in the present group rank well with the best he has already given us.
