

AMERICAN SOCIETY of MINIATURE PAINTERS

Organized MARCH, 1899

27TH ANNUAL EXHIBITION

From January 5th to 18th inclusive, 1926

AT THE GALLERIES OF

WILLIAM MACBETH, INC.

15 EAST 57TH STREET

NEW YORK

MINIATURE PAINTING is easily lost sight of in the hurly-burly of the winter's exhibitions, but when, once a year, it is brought into the foreground, it makes a special appeal to those who keep watch of the progress of American art — and it is held to a peculiarly strict accounting. If there is any painter who is on his honor to take his work seriously and avoid the temptations that lead to a cheap popularity, it is the painter whose particular field has been overrun by the amateur.

It is always interesting in a survey of the annual show of the American Society of Miniature Painters to look for signs that this pursuit has not been neglected.

The best practitioners we have of one of the most difficult of the arts belong to this organization.
